Our corporate ambition

In 2005, the AXA Group embarked on a program of accelerated change and growth. The Ambition 2012 corporate project rallies the strength of our Group to make AXA the preferred company of its clients, its employees and its shareholders.

Ambition 2012 places the client at the center of the Group's organization and concerns. Mobilizing employees at all levels, it sets growth objectives for the Group and provides the various levers to achieve them.

Our brand at the heart of our commitment

The AXA Group has redefined its global brand positioning to turn it into a powerful lever of differentiation, of internal motivation and of dedication to its clients. Our goal is to become the preferred company in our industry. Three key attitudes that guide our daily actions and our commitment to clients:

Available /

We are there when our customers need us and we listen to them, truly.

Attentive /

We treat our customers with empathy and consideration, provide personalized advice along their lives, and reward their loyalty.

Reliable /

We say what we do and we do what we say, we deliver and keep our customers informed, so that they can trust us.

To earn and preserve client preference, AXA is committed to responding to client needs with tangible proof via its products, the quality of its service and its capacity to innovate.

AXA measures the satisfaction of its clients twice a year, in more than 30 countries. Customer satisfaction went from 72% in 2005 to more than 80% in 2008.

Our commitment to sustainable development

The AXA Group has a dual commitment to sustainable development: as an insurer and responsible investor, and as a corporate citizen.

Our business vision of sustainable development consists of preventing risks and supporting responsible behavior in property and casualty, encouraging financial education in life and savings, and developing responsible investment and active governance in asset management.

As a corporate citizen, AXA is committed to reducing its direct environmental footprint, to promoting diversity and equal opportunity for all its employees, and to integrating the challenges of sustainable development into its supplier selection process. AXA is also committed to supporting fundamental research through the AXA Research Fund, to fighting against exclusion through community involvement, to promoting social philanthropy and micro-insurance, and to helping protect the world's cultural heritage.
