The principal terms and conditions of the capital increase reserved for employees are described in a French prospectus “note d’opération préliminaire” which received a visa from the AMF on 6th August 2004 with the visa N° 04-716 and in a French “note d’opération définitive” which received a final visa of the AMF on 29th September 2004 with the visa N° 04-803

ISSUER

AXA Footsie sectorial classification:
Economic Group : 80 Financials
Sector : 83 Insurance
Sub-sector : 839 Other Insurance

OBJECTIVE

The AXA Group has for several years offered to its employees, in and outside of France, the opportunity to subscribe for shares issued by way of a capital increase reserved for employees. By doing this, the AXA Group hopes to strengthen its relationship with its employees by closely associating them with the development and future results of the Group.

The 2004 offering, called “Shareplan 2004”, will take place in 27 countries and will involve more than 90,000 employees who will, in most countries, be offered the opportunity to participate in both a classic share offering and a leveraged plan offering.

SHARES TO BE ISSUED

- Date of the shareholders’ resolution authorising the capital increase: General Shareholders’ Meeting on 30 April 2003.
- Date of the decision of the Management Board authorising the issue: 28 June 2004 and 17 September 2004.
- Type of instrument, maximum number: pursuant to (i) resolution 20 of the General Shareholders’ Meeting of 30 April 2003 and (ii) the decisions of the Management Board of 28 June 2004 and 17 September 2004, the offering will consist of the following:
An issue, without preferential subscription rights for existing shareholders, of new shares offered at a subscription price equal to 80% of the reference price; this price is the average opening price for AXA shares on the Premier Marché of Euronext Paris S.A. during the period from and including 20 August 2004 to and including 16 September 2004.

In Germany and in respect only of the leveraged offering, an issue without preferential subscription rights for existing shareholders, of new shares with warrants attached exercisable into shares at a subscription price equal to the reference price.

The maximum number of new shares, which may be issued pursuant to the offering, is 49,996,692 shares.

The new shares earn dividends as from 1 January 2004.

CONDITIONS RELATING TO SUBSCRIPTION

- Beneficiaries of the offering: the individuals eligible for the offering are:
  - Employees who at the beginning of the subscription period have an employment contract with one or more of the eligible AXA companies and who will have been employed for at least 3 months on a continuous or on a discontinuous basis during the period from 1 January 2003 to the beginning of the subscription period, in conformity with article L444.4 of the French Code du travail, unless local law requirements require otherwise.
  - Subject to specific conditions in certain countries including the agreement of the relevant local companies, the ex-employees of eligible AXA companies who are retired or have taken early retirement in the event that such persons have not asked to have their units in any Plan d'Epargne d'Entreprise de Groupe des sociétés in France (P.E.E.G) or in any Plan International d’Actionnariat de Groupe des sociétés outside France (P.I.A.G.) liquidated at the beginning of the subscription.

- Price determined by the Management Board on 17 September 2004: 80% of the reference price (or its equivalent in local currency in the United States and the United Kingdom) in every country other than in the leveraged offering in Germany:

  i.e.  euro 13.50 **

- In the leveraged offering in Germany, the price is 100% of the reference price:

  i.e.  euro 16.87 **

- Existence of preferential subscription rights: the issue will be without preferential subscription rights for existing shareholders.

- Terms of subscription:
  - For the classic offer in France and outside France (other than U.S. and Italy) the new shares will be held through funds (fonds commun de placement) in which the employees will receive units. In the United States and in Italy, the shares will be subscribed directly by employees.
- For the leveraged plan, in France and outside France (other than U.S.) the new shares will be held through funds (fonds commun de placement) in which the employees will receive units. In the United States, the shares will be subscribed directly by employees.

- Holding period of shares: Eligible employees in France will be obliged to hold their shares or fund units for a legally imposed period of 5 years i.e. until 1 April 2009 in France, or until 31 December 2009 in Belgium and until 1 July 2009 for the rest of the world, except in the event of a specified early exit event.

TIMETABLE FOR THE OFFERING

- Fixing period to determine the reference price: from and including 20 August 2004 to and including 16 September 2004. Hedging transactions relating to the leveraged offering were carried out by a financial institution during this period, and could continue to be implemented until the end of the Shareplan 2004.

- The subscription period: expected to run from and including 29 September 2004 to and including 28 October 2004.

- Date of capital increase: expected on or about 15 December 2004.

LISTING

Listing of the new shares on the Premier Marché (continu A) of Euronext Paris S.A. (Euroclear France Code: 12062) and on the New York Stock Exchange in the form of American Depositary Shares (ADS), each ADS representing one ordinary AXA share, will be requested as soon as possible after the capital increase expected on or about 15 December 2004 and will be at the latest on December 31, 2004.
